

PSEUDO-HERMITIAN GEOMETRY IN 3-D

PAUL YANG

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

ABSTRACT. A pseudo-hermitain structure is a contact form and a choice of an almost complex structure on the kernel of the contact form. I will report on some elementary geometry associated with a surface in such a structure in 3-D as well as some progress on the analogue of the Yamabe equation in this dimension.