Tests were too in depth compared to in class teachings.

I thought Professor Chang was a good teacher. He seemed to be well prepared for class. One criticism is that his office hours doesn't last long enough.

I think Mr. Chang did a wonderful job. He was very challenging, but at the same time easy if you did all of the assigned work.

I think the instructor's availability after class was excellent. He really seemed to want to help.

He did his best to make sure the class knew how to do the problems he provided. He always gave help and review sessions that helped even more. His tests were challenging, but it was good to make us think about the material.

I felt Mr. Change was an excellent instructor. He was always there to help students if they needed it.

I liked the grading system. Some of the partial grades was helpful.

Some instructors realize that in the real world, calculations can be utilized. It makes the class easier to understand. I think that he should incorporate calculations.

Always prepared and on time.

Easy to understand. Uses class time very well. Grading is very good.

Do not grade homework for accuracy. Assign odd problems so we know if we are getting them right or not. Do not give the hardest problems. Have more/better office hours.

Mr. Chang has been very kind to stay after regular office hours to help his students to understand the material and be well prepared for tests.

He is a very tough grader but he does a good job of making himself available for students who need help or have questions.

He cares about our grades and is very organized.

Very organized! Intelligent, available, sometimes hard to understand, needs improvement on transferring his intelligence to students, hard to follow.

Very helpful in understanding material. Always prepared and always available for questions.

Professor Chang does a very good job in class explaining the information in a thorough and helpful way. He is always willing to help students before, after, and during class.

Sometimes the homework was overburdensome. Also the tests have too much material on them. It is extremely difficult to complete the exam.

I think Chang is an outstanding teacher. I appreciate him spending his personal time on some nights before the test helping us to prepare for the test. He is very generous and I would be flattered if he was my coworker.

Very helpful with questions and just in grading.

Education

This instructor gave good feedback on our lab reports and gave us a chance to correct our mistakes.

Science

He was very helpful when the class did not understand, he even made worksheets to make the assignment more clear.

He worked well to make sure students understood the lab and provided a guideline for them.

Sungkon Chang was always willing to help and answered all of my questions quickly and correctly.

Other

Very helpful when asked questions.

Was very willing to sit and help when I didn't understand, very patient. Wanted us to be able to do it and get it right.

He did a great job teaching the class and helping us understand the course better.

He praised often and was extremely helpful. I really enjoyed working with him.

First let me say that Mr. Chang is very nice and helpful. Secondly, I will never use this program again in my life and can't believe the University made me waste my time in this lab.

Mr. Chang is an outstanding Calc Lab teacher! He always helped us individually and made sure we understood any succeeded in our projects.

Great class SK!

Mr. Chang has been a part of my motivation to change my major to Mathematics. He is very helpful when asked about Math or Maple.

Sunkong is a very helpful, understanding, knowledgeable professor who made this lab understandable and interesting!

Mr. Chang was an excellent instructor. He provides any help as needed. His lab choices were good, as was his grading.

He was great!!

He's always enthusiastic about teaching and makes Maple fun.

Professor was always helpful everyday and made learning Maple easy. Excellent teacher. Always showed us how to use new commands in Maple.
